
Cosmic Microwave Background Polarization Measurements

Désert F.-Xavier*¹

¹Institut de Planétologie et d'Astrophysique de Grenoble (IPAG) – OSUG, Université Joseph Fourier - Grenoble I, INSU, CNRS : UMR5274 – 414, Rue de la Piscine BP 53 38041 Grenoble Cedex 9, France

Résumé

Statistics of the Cosmic Microwave Background anisotropies
Debiasing the polarization intensity.
Signal to Noise ratio statistics in the presence of low-frequency extra noise

*Intervenant